The API groups every non-bank lender, digital credit providers included, as Other lenders. The bureau's printed report splits that group further, so its sector rows can differ while the totals agree.

One mark per account, height by size. Clusters are the signal — several facilities opened in one month is stacking, which a monthly total would hide.

Concentration matters: one large facility and six small ones is a different risk from seven equal ones.

“Late” is days past due AS OF the date in “Reported”, not as of today — a lender that has not submitted for months will show stale arrears. “Max” is the worst this account has ever been.

READING NOTES	derived from this file
- The oldest account figures were last reported to the bureau 1774 days ago. Arrears counts are as of that date, not today. - The bureau reports no enquiries in 12 months, yet 13 accounts were opened in that window. Metropol's enquiry counters are not real-time and should not be read as shopping behaviour. - No account on this file is flagged as the requesting lender's own, including where the lender has an active loan. Treat `is_your_account` as unreliable for reconciliation.

ABOUT THIS DOCUMENT

The credit information in this document was supplied by Metropol Credit Reference Bureau, a credit reference bureau licensed by the Central Bank of Kenya. The Interchange did not create, alter or verify that information. The Interchange is a technology intermediary: it is not a credit reference bureau and it gives no credit opinion. It retrieves the bureau's response, keeps it unchanged (the original response and its SHA-256 fingerprint are held under the reference on this document), and presents it in a form a lending decision can use. Where this document shows totals, orderings, charts or flags, they are marked as the Interchange's reading of the bureau's data and are not the bureau's statement. Questions or disputes about the underlying data must be raised with Metropol Credit Reference Bureau, which holds the record.
